From the Pastor's Desk

You may have noticed the two small book racks that were installed near the main entrance of church several weeks ago. The initial set of books in these racks was donated by parishioner Pam Barnes. They are part of a series called Direction for our Times, which is published the Apostolate of the Returning King, a canonically recognized apostolate in the Catholic Church.

If you peruse the books and booklets in these racks, you'll see that they cover a range of topics, all from a Catholic perspective. Some of the topics include: Marriage & Divorce; Those Who Do Not Know Jesus; Those Who Struggle To Forgive; Those Away From Church; Those Considering Suicide; and several other important topics. You are welcome to take the booklets, keep them, or pass them on to others when you're finished. The books are free, but donations are certainly welcome; there is a donation box on each book rack. You can also find many of these resources online at: www.directionforourtimes.org

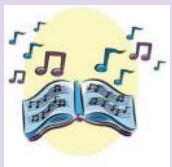
Of course, this Sunday we celebrate Father's Day. As we do each year, we will offer a blessing for fathers after each Mass this weekend. And if you enrolled names in our Father's Day Spiritual Bouquet, those names are printed in this bulletin, and they are displayed on posters at the front of church this weekend (the posters will remain there for next weekend too).

I'd also like to offer a prayer that you might want to pray for the fathers in your life. Pope St. John XXIII composed a beautiful prayer to St. Joseph for fathers, and I'd like to share it here:

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands. Kindly protect all the fathers who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness. But amid the worries of material life your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done.

Holy Virgin Martyrs, pray for us. May God bless you.

Fr. Rob



Music Notes

Lord, in your great love, hear my prayer.

Receive The Blessed Sacrament of Holy Communion

HVM Ministers of Care can bring Holy Communion to our parishioners who are Homebound or Sick. If you or someone you know would like to receive Holy Communion, or would like to know more about this rewarding ministry, then please contact Nancy Ryan (parish nurse) either by leaving a message at the rectory or by email aryan2@primehealthcare.com.

- Encouraging faithful discipleship through the completion of Mass and service hours
- Through enrichment opportunities like The
- Seder Meal, Church Tours, and Teaching Masses
- Offering Opportunities for involvement in Mass by having our students read and bring up the gifts at our monthly Family Masses and by offering opportunities to join parish ministries like altar serving.

Sacramental Information

The Religious Education program has a 2 year consecutive attendance requirement for the reception of the Sacraments of Communion and Confirmation. Confirmation is celebrated in 8th grade.
